THE GIRL HE LEFT BEHIND HIM!

Picture by R. W. Satterfield Poem by Edmund Vance Cooke

There was an ancient soldier-song,
These warring times remind me,
In which the verse is long and strong
Of "the girl I left behind me."
But now the girl you leave behind,
With mingled tears and laughter,
Believe me, boys, she's not the kind
To be behind hereafter!

SULLIVAN FAMILY GROUP REPRESENTS FOUR GENERATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sullivan entertained with a family reunion Saturday at their home on Missionary Ridge, in honor of the former's father, J. H. Sullivan. The occasion was the eighty-eighth birthday of the elder Mr. Sullivan.

Patriotic colors decorated the living room, while in the dining room quantities of summer flowers were used. The guests were seated at four tables.

A large, white birthday cake, upon which the honoree's age was written, was placed in the center of the table at which he was seated. Covers were laid for forty-eight.

Those present were J. D. Sullivan, Grayville, Tenn.; T. J. Sullivan, Big Springs; F. V. Sullivan, Pittsburgh, Ga.; Mrs. D. R. McLendon, Dunlap, children of Mr. Sullivan; Mrs. J. F. Nipper.

Dirt Just Rolls Out
OUT GOES the dirt. Those great, big, bubbling, cleansing GRANDMA'S SUDS just surge through the clothes and not a bit of dirt can stay. Just sprinkle GRANDMA in the tub and then, like white magic, millions of glorious suds in an instant. It makes no difference if the water is hard, soft, hot or cold, the result is always the same. GRANDMA is the greatest "all round" household soap of the age—it's powdered. No chipping or slicing. No whole bar wasting away.
